

One Million. Gallery

Privacy & Content Policy

Overview:

This Privacy and Content Policy details important information regarding the use and display of media, information and features on the site. This Privacy Policy only applies to the OneMillion.Gallery Website and features, and not to any other websites, products or services you may be able to access or link to via the OneMillion.Gallery Website.

OneMillion.Gallery is a collection of 97 Digital Canvases (NFTs) which are minted and stored on the Ethereum network. The OneMillion.Gallery website serves as an interface, allowing Canvas Owners (e.g. the Owner of A1) to interact, upload and display various types of media content to their Digital Canvas (NFTs) for display to other Canvas Owners and the general visitors to the OneMillion.Gallery website.

Personal Information:

Whilst we encourage the use and input of peoples real digital identities, OneMillion.Gallery does not require the capture of personal information in order for the site to be used by Canvas Owners or visitors. The information contained within a Canvas Bio is input at the discretion of the Canvas Owner and it is at their discretion as to whether or not they wish to remain anonymous.

Whilst the information captured from Canvas Owners is stored on our site and servers, the OneMillion.Gallery website does not require personal information to be captured in order for the site to be used as intended.

If a Canvas Owner were to input personal or identifiable information such as, but not limited to, their Username, links to their Social Media accounts (Instagram, Twitter) or Website, they do so at their own discretion and have the ability to edit and delete the information they've provided during their time of ownership. If information such as their username was present on their profile prior to transferring or selling their Canvas, that information would still be visible to OneMillion.Gallery visitors via the History tab.

Other types of information:

Types of information collected by OneMillion.Gallery include:

1. Google Analytics to track and monitor traffic. This includes the type of device you use, access times, hardware model, and operating system and version

- We may use this information to analyse for trends to see how the site is being used and interacted with. Additionally, this information may be used to improve overall user experience of the site.

1.1 Your Ether address (for Canvas Owners) - this address is publicly viewable.

Any other personally-identifiable information about you shall not be collected, unless you have emailed us or communicated with us via third party social media sites.

Ownership and Commercial Use:

Subject to the compliance with the Content Policy below, Canvas Owners are granted the ability to display various types of media on their Canvas, as well as the ability to monetise their Canvas if they choose to.

This also applies to any additional 'Airdropped' NFTs created as part of OneMillion.Gallery that may be included in the roadmap or offered at a later stage.

Uploads:

The content uploaded by Canvas Owners is stored via a third party provider (filestack.com) and is visible via the OneMillion.Gallery site in perpetuity via the 'History' tab. This is part of the overall site and NFT experience. In the instance of copyright infringement or complaint, please email info@onemillion.gallery

Uploads are made at the discretion of the Canvas Owners. Canvas Owners are individually responsible for adhering to the Content Policy or risk action being taken which may see the removal of media from their Canvas.

Up-Time:

The creators of OneMillion.Gallery guarantee a 99.99% up-time of the website.

Information Security

Whilst we cannot guarantee the absolute security of information processed, we have taken appropriate security measures to protect information you have provided. For example the information provided is on computer systems with limited access, encryption, or both.

It is the responsibility of the Canvas Owner to ensure that their Wallets, Cryptos and NFTs are correctly secured. OneMillion.Gallery take no responsibility for any loss or theft that may occur due to the improper handling of your digital assets, phishing, fraud or other internet activity result in a loss of asset or money that takes places.
